

What a relief it has been to our household to have the telephone privacy act. We used to be harassed in the form of being bothered an average of 5 times PER DAY...even on Sunday mornings. Since we have been on the no call list, I can only recall a handful of such calls. And when we receive them, we tell them we are on the list, and hang up. Please do nothing to lessen the effectiveness of this bill!